SEWER GAS EXPLOSION

AT PLANTERS' ROOMS

Two Men Badly Injured by Igniting the Same Cesspool at Nuanuu, Near King Streets.

On Wednesday last, N. P. Jacobsen, experienced and trusted agent of the board of health, was badly burned by igniting a lamp down into the cesspool of the Hawaiian Planters' association at the corner of King and Nuanuu streets. Yesterday Antonio Almeida, a Portuguese, also encountered a similar catastrophe at the same place. He was very badly burned and was removed to the city hospital, where he was resting last evening. His hands and arms were badly burned; so was his face, neck and chest.

These two explosions in that building caused considerable comment, to the effect that such sanitary conditions exist on the premises of the nabobs of the city, what may be found elsewhere and that the board of health doing for the sums of money it is expending with such dangers confronting them, is a demand for big wages does seem to be unreasonable.

The man had a squad of witnesses to that the Jap assaulted him, beat threatened to kill him and well had him interred. The Jap counter put up a formidable defense of ten witnesses, including women and children. They jangled well, the judge fined the Jap $10 and Son Kong was fined $50 for having possession of opium. The judge waived examination on charge of larceny in the second degree and was bound over to the circuit under bond of $100. The same drunks and a few poets completed the docket.

Modern Livery.

The Territorial Stables company, located on King street, opposite Kawaiahae church, is now ready for business. John Andrade, the popular horseman here, is the manager. This establishment is modern in every detail. The sanitary arrangement of the building is perfect, the floor of the stalls is made of concrete, and being built with a slant, affords good drainage. By the use of a hose all the stalls can be flushed in a very short time. The company has now in stock a number of fine horses and swell rigs. These are to be used for their livery department. The credit of this new enterprise is due to G. Schuman and other prominent men of Honolulu. Those wishing reliable horses, experienced drivers, new rigs, fair prices and courteous treatment should call at the Territorial stables. Their telephone number is main 35. They deliver and call for rigs free of charge.
